ALL SORTS OF ITEMS.

An insurance policy covers a multitude of sins.

"Vineyardist" is the newest ugly word invented by men who are too lazy to write English.

A lady describing an ill-natured man, says he never smiles but he feels ashamed of it.

Never step on a dog's tail unless the other end of the dog is a mile away from the tail.

The young man need never do for himself anything that a father is willing to do for him.

Can any undertaker, when disposing of his business, reckon on the good will of his patrons?

Indianapolis has no Sunday paper. She gives a lively Sunday support to two hundred saloons.

"O Lord," a certain minister prayed, "thou has seen by the morning paper, how the Sabbath was desecrated yesterday."

Some crabbed old bachelor writes that "Many a snakekin masquerades in a ragged dress, a dirty apron, and an empty stomach."

If it be true that no news is good news, some of the Boston dailies are emphatically good newspapers.

The Alaskan women always wear a narrow band of gold in the centre of the large bows that compose part of their head-dress.

The true poet lacks no incidents for inspiration. Robert Burns wrote a sweet song after turning up a mouse with a plow.

The American citizen traveling abroad, etc., undertook to climb the Pyrenees as badly barked as were his shoes.

It was the poet Anacreon who, long ago, told the Greeks that strength was the glory of man. He neglected to add that it is not the glory of butler.

Pittsfield, Mass., furnishes a man who kicked another to death because the victim didn't pay a debt of ten cents. His motto was, "Take care of the pennies."

Class "O" in the Kentucky state lottery is to be drawn next. They are very frank to thus advertise the amount of cash each ticket-holder is certain to draw.

It takes an African belle nearly six hours to make her toilet. Five of these are spent in grinning at her reflection in a glass and the other in frizzling her hair.

A young lady, when solicited for a kiss by an inebriated suitor, refused, but couldn't prevent him from pressing her hand. She says she escaped by a "tight" squeeze.

A MYSTERIOUS OUTRAGE.

A Woman Drugged and Robbed while on Her Way East.

[Virginia Chronicle, Saturday.]

A letter has just been received at this office from Bushnell, Illinois, stating that about the 8th of last December a woman was put off the train at Bushnell, supposed to be insane.

A physician who examined her pronounced her under the influence of drugs. Her pocket-book contained $52 and a ticket to New York in one compartment, but the other compartments of the pocket-book had been cut and rifled. When she came to her senses she gave her name as Catherine Hume, and said that she came from Virginia City, and was on her way to visit her mother in Ireland. She had a sister-in-law in Virginia City. She said she met an English woman in Burlington, Iowa, who gave her a glass of liquor. She recollected little after this. When she drank the liquor she had $500 in her pocket-book in gold notes and greenbacks. She was cared for at Bushnell by the authorities, and died on the 26th of January. Any of her relatives in this city can hear more of the case by writing to Thomas L. Morgan, Illinois.

The Unemployed of New York.

New York, Feb. 8.—Statistics show that the number of unemployed mechanics and laborers in this city now is one-half less than four and five years ago, which is accounted for by the movement West and South and the decided business revival. The table published gives the present number of unemployed at 15,000, of which 8,000 are laborers, carpenters, 8,000 masons and stone-cutters, 1,000 painters, 1,000 plasterers, 800, and cigar makers 300. During 1873 the daily average of unemployed was 25,000, reaching subsequently 60,000.

Murdered by Indians in Wyoming.

CHRYSTIE, W. T., Feb. 8.—Mr. Sanders, who left Poor's ranch on the Nebraska February 1st, with dispatches, reached the North Platte last night, having been driven fifty miles by Indians. He confirms the news of the killing of Morehead and Ashbaugh on January 26th, by thirteen Indians, and also reports the names Samuel Briggs, and the other man lately from the agency, called Bustler.

Talk to Cheap.

And so are fine clothing, boots, shoes, hats and gentlemen's and boys' fine furnishing goods. If you go to the right place to get them. This is a mighty important point, for some people who assert that they sell cheap do nothing of the kind. I do not boast when I say that I defy competition in prices in anything in my line. Besides this I have only one price. I have no preferred customers.

Everybody is treated alike at my establishment. My stock is the largest and most complete ever offered in any part of this State. Everything I have is new. No old, musty and out-of-date goods can be found on my shelves.

I receive daily by rail and express the latest and best goods, which are obtained at first hand and sold at prices below those now prevailing in New York and Chicago. Let the people come and judge of my prices and examine my stock before going into those miserable, cheap John shops, in which they drum into the ear of the customer that they sell at cost and give better cost. Anybody with common sense must know that they lie.

No storekeeper sells goods for the fun of the thing. I make a profit on everything I sell, as every honest merchant does, and don't print foolish falsehoods in the vain hope of deceiving the public. One must make a profit to live. I particularly call attention to my full stock of fancy underwear, such as is kept nowhere else in Reno. This class of goods form one of my specialties. Remember the price.

Something of Interest to the Public.

Having opened a first-class merchant tailor establishment in Reno I beg leave to inform the public that I am prepared to make gentlemen's garments and deliver the public to my price-list below, which will convince all that the rates are reduced far below the prices formerly charged in the state of Nevada:

Pants, cashmere, made to order, from $5 to $12. Usual price, $12 to $15.

Business suits, from $10 to $15. Usual price, $15 to $18.

Fine Scotch suits, imported goods, $45 Usual price, $60.

Fine diagonal suits, from $40 to $50. Usual price $60 to $70.

Fine black six-beaver dress suits, from $50 to $65. Usual price, $65 to $80.

Give me a call and convince yourself. I guarantee a good fit for all work done in my shop. Clothes repaired and renovated on the shortest possible notice and satisfaction guaranteed.

Let It Concern All.

Who is there that can say "I am under obligations to no one?" The young man just entering business life owes to the home in which he was nurtured and educated, to the parents who have supported him, and to the younger members of the family who have been denied luxuries to make his advancement sure. At middle age the necessity for insuring life increases with his responsibility. If in health, his first duty should be to attend to it. Unhealthy lives are not insured. Insure while you are in an insurable condition. Every day brings with it the possibility of some cause which will forever bar insurance. Let not the father of a family suffer the opportunity to pass without embracing it. He owes it to his wife, to his children and to the State. To become a member of the Seaboard and Marine Mutual Beneficial Association of Portland costs from $5 to $10, according to age. Members of the Reno Agency have already been paid about $10,000 in benefits. Over $300,000 have been paid in benefits since its organization in 1868.

Office with Dr. Snow, International Hotel.

The scarcity of diamonds, gold and silver, and the difficulties met with in securing them, is a sure indication of their value. Thus it is with a valuable medicine: Dr. Ang. Kaler's celebrated German Painless Kidney, through the jealousy of rivals, has met with the most bitter opposition, and appears almost insurmountable obstacles have been thrown in its way; but its opponents might as well try to change the course of the sun, sweep back the ocean with a broom, or put out a prairie fire with a tear. For the cure of Throat and Lung diseases, such as Coughs, Colds, Consumption and Bronchial Affections it is unequalled. Its cures are truly magical. Ask your druggists, Ostrum & RUDOLPH, for it. The genuine bears the Prussian Coat of Arms, the fac-simile signature of Dr. Ang. Kaler, and has his name blown on every 75-cent bottle. Trial bottle, 25 cents.

THE CHINESE VOTE.

Mr. Joseph Cook, of Boston, has gained some fame by his Monday lectures. Being an attractive speaker and full of dramatic and dogmatic eloquence he has become a drawing card and attracts a good deal of attention. He demolishes science and all its verities by twisting and garbling the truth to suit his dogma. His calibrs may be seen by his recent attempt to browbeat the U. S. customs officials at Niagara Falls into passing his trunks without examination because, as he said, he was the Rev. Joseph Cook of Boston, and a member of the highest society there. The official very properly answered that he didn't care who he was he would do his duty. Mr. Cook lectured on the Chinese and Irish question in New York last Thursday evening and used the following brilliant ideas:

San Francisco, a great and brave city, hardly dares utter her mind on the Chinese question when her senators threaten confiscation, riot and murder. Leaders and roughs, led by a gang of shallow and foul-mouthed cheap Jacks, mostly of foreign birth, fill the ears of Californians daily with threats of blood, fire and devastation. I am a friend of workmen but not of rioters, tramps, thieves, sneaks and thugs. The anti-Chinese club crack defiantly the whip of lawlessness over the heads of California's mayors, governors and senators. This business may succeed for a day and hour in a city famed once for its deadly vigilance committee, but it will not succeed in the long course of events. It may succeed with one state under a corrupt legislature, but it will not succeed with the nation. San Francisco is afraid of her sand lots. Massachusetts is not; she has seen their chief orator. New York is not for she has beheld the same vision. [Applause and laughter.] Three despised races on this continent are negroes, Indians and Chinese. That part of the nation which did justice to the first of these races will ultimately do justice to the others. There is a provision that the sixteenth emigrant who offers himself for the passage on any American vessel shall be excluded. When the Chinese Embassy came across the Pacific it had more than fifty in its train and could not have been brought on one ship according to the proposed legislation. If ever the Chinese Emperor should send another embassy we should be obliged to bring them on several vessels under this new regulation. Chinese immigration thus far has done more, and far more for this country, financially, than the Irish did when the Irish was no larger. [Applause.] If the mayor of San Francisco, or if the governor of California wishes to represent the sentiment that will carry the vote of the serious parts of this land—if there is to be a union between the best politicians of California and the best of the country in the next Presidential election—the thing for San Francisco to do is to keep order, not only in Chinatown, but on the sand lots, to stave by the ways of the neck the mobocracy and hoodlumism of San Francisco, and if necessary, by the name of the neck the Chinese quarter also, but at any hazard to keep both in order to preserve the fundamental principles of our national policy and to make first pure and then peaceable the Pacific coast so far as it is tread by cheap labor. [Applause.]

The display of such dense ignorance of the real sentiments of the people of the Pacific states in one who claims to be the leading educator of educated Boston, shows the importance of the GAZETTE's movement to procure a vote direct from the people on the question. When the vote is taken, and the immense majority which will surely be given against immigration is published, there will be no excuse for such misstatements of the source from which the anti-Chinese pressure comes. It will be seen that instead of being the voice of a mob, it is the sentiment of every man, woman and child in the country. Let us roll up a big vote and show the people of the East that the brain, wealth and muscle of the Pacific coast are united on the question. Perhaps Brother Cook will peer over the fence of egotism and bigotry which surrounds him to see what the noise is, and even he may learn that great principles are involved and the future of our country at stake.

An Ingenious Plan.

Like Post.
 Of the various plans which have been suggested to get rid of the tramps who infest the community, that adopted by a lady in a neighboring town is certainly ingenious and worth a trial. Observing that they never proposed to be saved, she concluded to keep half a cord or so of empty and empty sticks piled up in front of the shed. Whenever a tramp came that would pile be passed by on the other side, and says nothing about "turning a blanket." The plan works admirably.

GOING TO JAIL FOR FISHING.

Private information leads us to believe that several parties will be indicted by the grand jury now in session at Carson, for fishing in Pyramid lake. The local officers have orders from Washington to keep men off this reservation and they have no alternative but to obey. The GAZETTE enters a vigorous protest against the monopolizing of this grand source of food by the Indian bureau. As long as the law remains as it is the Indian agents may at any time bring the whole power of the government to bear to punish any who may encroach on the territory set apart as a reservation. To allow the agent to keep the whole lake free from fish is a few acres of its southern shore, is an unnecessary and oppressive wrong. There is no principle whatever involved. The crafty agents and a good many of the Indians understand the value of a monopoly of the trout business and intend to get all the benefits of it. There is no good reason in the world for their having this monopoly. It is not the intention of the law in any of the grants to either tribes nor is it to these. There would be no hardship or wrong done to any one by dividing the reservation at Goat island and throwing the north end open to the public. The Indians would then have fifty miles of the lake shore and thirty miles of river. All their fishing and hunting grounds, their houses, fields and groves of trees. Everything that they use or have seen for years, every foot of land that they ever travel over would then be inside their reservation. Washoe county should send a petition to Senator Sharon or Jones if our legislature is unmindful enough of our interests to neglect this important matter.

The intelligent composition in Saturday's GAZETTE made us refer to McKelvey as a seafaring man where we intended to say God-fearing man.

During a temporary attack the Evening Chronicle man heads a communication from Arizona, "A Yuma-reus letter."

MURDERED BY A LUNATIC.

Two Old People Clubbed to Death—The Murderer Shot by a Neighbor in Self-Defense.

Boston, Jan. 28.—Additional particulars of the tragedy at Montville, Waldo county, Me., on Saturday evening last, state that the granddaughter of John McFarland was not killed. The victims were John McFarland and his wife, Salina, each about 70 years old, and George Rowell, aged 40. The place where the murder occurred is 18 miles from Belfast. McFarland and his wife and Rowell and his wife and two children lived together. Rowell having married the widow of McFarland's son. On Saturday evening Rowell had some words with McFarland, during which he struck him and threatened to take his life. McFarland and his wife and the two children left the house for a neighbor's. As they were leaving they met Azena Raynes, a neighbor, who was coming to McFarland's house. As he neared the house he was fired upon by Rowell, who was in the house but was not hit. Turning, Raynes ran back home, passing McFarland and his wife, who were walking through the snow. Rowell followed, with the empty gun in his hand, and overtook the old couple, killed them both in the road with the clubbed gun, breaking Mrs. McFarland's neck, and crushing the skull of both in a horrible manner. Leaving his victims in the road, Rowell hurried on in pursuit of Raynes, who, with the children, had entered his house, closed the doors, and armed himself with a double-barreled shot gun. Rowell burst in the panels of the door and received a charge from Raynes's gun, striking him in the groin and killing him almost instantly. Rowell was undoubtedly insane.

A DEADLY DRAM.

A Man Drinks a Quart of Whisky and Dies.

[Virginia Chronicle.]

On Sunday morning last a man named Michael Hall came into George Sloan's saloon in Sutter, and asserted that he could drink a quart of whisky in five minutes. Hall was somewhat intoxicated at the time, but was so anxious to bet that some one finally put up $10 that he could not accomplish the feat. Accordingly a quart measure was filled up with Sutter whisky, the quality and strength of which is too well known throughout the state to make any further explanation necessary. Hall lifted the measure and drained it to the dregs, without moving it from his lips, in two minutes and thirty seconds. He then pocketed the $10. Before a minute had passed he fell to the floor apparently dead, and in that condition was at once removed to his lodging-house on Helena avenue. Dr. Briery was summoned and emetics were given, but without producing the desired effect. A stomach-pump was then applied to the man, and more than a pint of the liquid was taken from him. For forty-eight hours he was unconscious of what was going on about him. Inflammation of the stomach set in, and on Thursday night about 11 o'clock he died. Hall was a robust hard-working young man, only twenty-five years of age. He was a native of Ireland and unmarried.

THE CEDAR PASS TRAGEDY.

Further Particulars of the Bloody Affair.

The Elko Independent has the following particulars of the tragedy, near Humboldt Wells, which has heretofore appeared:

The ten o'clock train from the east last night brought down to this place from Cedar Pass, a wood station about twelve miles east of Wells, two men who had been fearfully wounded by an ax in the hands of a third party, at a cabin in the timber, a short distance south from the railroad in one of the wood-choppers camps, several of which are established in that immediate vicinity. One of the wounded men, John Dempsey by name, was TAKEN FROM THE TRAIN A CORPSE, having died of his injuries while en route for this place, and the other, Allen Bickford, has not yet spoken, and will also probably succumb to untimely death. Both are young men and Americans, Bickford being a native of Boston, and 26 years of age. Dempsey is evidently not more than 23 or 24, but we could obtain no particulars as to his age, or place of nativity; neither could we learn any of the facts leading to the perpetration of the bloody affair, beyond the following: A man working at one of the camps mentioned arrived at Wells on foot, early yesterday morning and

GAVE HIMSELF UP to the deputy sheriff, stating that he had seriously wounded a couple of men who had made a murderous attack upon him at his cabin, a short time before. His statement so far as we can learn, is that the men came to the house armed, one with a gun and the other with a pistol, and in the attack upon him, fired three shots. Upon the discharge of the weapons he dropped to the floor,

FEIGNING TO BE SHOT, and upon the near approach of his assailants he sprang to his feet, seized an ax that lay convenient, and used it so effectively that they were unable to renew the attack. He is now in custody at Wells, and an examination into the facts was to have been held at that place to-day. The weapon that killed Dempsey, cut his cheek open from the left eye downward, and buried itself in the breast.

RICKNELL'S SKULL IS CLOVEN about the size of the bit of an ax from which the brain is effected, producing partial paralysis and total loss of speech. Ricknell is an old resident of this section having worked upon the water ditch here, at one time, and last summer worked upon the ranch of Mr. Crawford in Huntington valley. He has papers showing that he had been in the United States naval service at one time. Of Dempsey, who was buried here this evening, we have thus far been unable to learn any particulars beyond the fact that he had previously been in Elko.

Pope's Opinion of Woman.

All women, it has been said, hate Pope, who, more than any other man, uttered the true sentiment of his mind. Some keen observers have thought his judgment sound; but, whatever we may think of his merits, his manner of expressing it is certainly not flattering, and is singularly coarse. The coarseness with which he asserts, in an epistle to a lady, that "most women have no characters at all," is one obvious instance. The amazing brutality of his lampoons upon Lady Mary herself is only an excessive application of his ordinary method. New Pope, whatever his faults, was one of those morbidly sensitive beings, who under other conditions, would probably have been unusually appreciative of the charms of woman's society. But he was simply reflecting, with added sharpness of his own, the ordinary tone of that kind of bachelor society in which he, like the other wits of his time, passed so much of his time. Their drinking in coffee-houses expanded their girth as Thackeray has remarked, and certainly encouraged a style of talk now banished from drawing-rooms. The dramas of Wycherley and Congreve are only conceivable as corresponding to a social state in which the temporary man about town was flourishing and supreme. Plays and novels were long intended to taste the taste of the animal known as the rake, and not, as now compelled to satisfy a feminine sense of refinement. Even the Spectator and its like, though meant to supply reading for ladies, addressed woman with a tone of condescension, showing sufficiently how little importance could be attached to their feelings.

Fatal Shooting.

[Bodie Standard.]

To-day's telegraph and mail brings the news, but not the particulars, of a shooting scrape in the quiet old town of Aurora. It occurred at the Exchange hotel last night between two stanchards of that institution. The head cook of the hotel, whose name was not ascertained, is accused of applying to the bar for whisky, and upon the refusal of the bartender, Hiram Thayer, he drew a knife and made some demonstration or started to go behind the bar. Thayer pulled a pistol and fired. The ball took effect in the abdomen of the unfortunate cook and will prove fatal.

Assessment Notice.

PACIFIC GOLD AND SILVER MINING CO.—Location of works, Pyramid District; location of principal place of business, Reno, Nevada. Notice is hereby given that at a meeting of the Board of Trustees held February 4th, 1879, an assessment (No. 1) of Three Cents, payable in U. S. gold coin, was levied upon each share of the capital stock of the corporation. Any stock upon which this assessment shall remain unpaid on the 6th day of March, 1879, will be deemed delinquent and advertised for sale at public auction, and unless payment is made before, will be sold on Monday, April 22d, 1879, to pay the delinquent assessment, together with costs of advertising and expenses of the sale. By order of the Board of Trustees. L. C. BACHELDER, Secretary. Reno, February 4th, 1879.

Estray Notice.

FOUR HOGS, THREE BLACK ONES and one spotted one, with ear marks, came to my place December 28th, 1878. I desire the owner to call, prove property, pay charges and take them away. J. HALE. jan-4w

HENRY STEIL, TAILOR,

(Under Occidental Hotel) SAN FRANCISCO, CAL.

He is Authority for Style. E. N. Thoreson, his Agent, WILL BE IN RENO in about one month to receive order and take measure.

He had a long string and a brass key tied to the end of it, which he said was the instrument of torture. Over the front sidewalk a maple tree sent some pretty strong branches making a nest hidden by the leaves. Into this, after dark, the boys climbed. "Now wait," said the principal, "till the first victim comes, and don't make a noise."

Pretty soon an ordinarily dressed woman came along, and just as she passed, he let drop the key on the sidewalk, immediately pulling it up again. Both now watched developments. The woman came to a sudden stop, began fumbling in her pockets and wondering what she could have dropped. She started on, but had not gone far before she came back, impelled by curiosity, and began a careful search of the sidewalk. Meanwhile the boys in the tree studied their fate in the "dark."

...to game, and below for fear of a sympathetic sister. ...and together they picked up stones and turned over all the chips on the walk. No money, no key, no nothing did they find, and so went to their homes, perhaps to worry all night; or perhaps a giggle in the tree turned their looks of disappointment into a cheap smile, and a laugh from the same place made them have awful wicked thoughts about boys.

The trick is harmless; no one breaks a leg or loses an eye by the process. It might be recommended to constitutionally tired boys as a good way to sweep the walk. The victims will throw all chips and stones into the street by curiosity power, as it were.

Labor Strikes in Liverpool.

LONDON, Feb. 8.—It is estimated that from 30,000 to 35,000 men are now on a strike at Liverpool. The demonstration of the crowd yesterday was most threatening. In consequence of the sailors joining the strikers, the laborers employed in the provision trade also struck. At Waterloo dock the mob broke up staging and did much damage. After their expulsion by the police they endeavored to storm the gates. At Princess dock a mob boarded the bark Cora, from Wilmington, North Carolina, which was unloading her cargo of resin and extinguished the fires in the donkey engines and cut the hoisting gear. This mob numbered about 8000. Smaller mobs terrorized laborers at Queen, Nelson and Bramley docks. The police were reinforced last night, especially near the Sailor's Home. A number of laborers sent to Liverpool from Wolverhampton were compelled to return by threats of murder.

MRS. H. A. MOORE'S SCIENTIFIC HAIR PRODUCER.

Mrs. H. A. Moore would announce to the ladies and gentlemen who desire the personal adornment of a fine cut of hair, that she has selected her celebrated Hair Restorer, which has now been before the public for a space of two years, and has in every instance given entire satisfaction as to what it promises. No mineral or damaging substance is used in this preparation, and it is guaranteed to prevent hair falling out after four applications. Well-known cases of long standing baldness have been successfully treated (as per testimonials in my possession). It will produce a full flowing crop of hair on the crown of baldness, even to the most pronounced cases. It will prevent hair from turning gray.

Preparations forwarded to all parts of the country.
